NOTE FOR: DCI
DDCI

FROM: Executive Director

- As mentioned to John, Anne Armstrong is said to be concerned about her track record, specifically with regard to actions taken by agencies on recommendations in her periodic reports to the President.
- We suggested early in her tenure (but it may not then have been absorbed), that the PFIAB could earn its salary many times over if it could solve some perennial DoD issues:

- Probably more important, as discussion of [redacted] paper on our liaison with the military revealed, is the absence of DIA credibility with the theater commanders and the by-passing of DIA and impeded CIA intelligence flow through DIA to them that results.
- We've suggested, informally, to the PFIAB staff that the DIA issue is an important one. You might also want to mention it to Judge Clark or Anne, or both.
